PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Lion Tim Casey

Hard to believe June has come and gone already, but time flies when you're busy and having fun. Our club is in full swing for its summertime fund raising activities including the pork chop dinners, Monday bingo and Thursday flea market. In addition, we may have another pancake breakfast, road cleanup and brat stand activities. To do all this we still need some volunteers, so contact one of the activity chairs if you have some time to spare to help out.

Congratulations to our incoming board members and special congratulations to our Birch Sturm Fellow, Bob Bridges, along with our Melvin Jones Award recipient, DuWayne Schumacher. We are proud of you.

I hope all of you celebrate a wonderful 4th of July with your families and come out to see our community's parade featuring our "Citizen of the Year" Mike McKeon along with our "Lion of the Year" Phil St. Clair.

Have a great Summer everyone, it's finally arrived!

SALUTE TO BINGO 2019

Last Monday our crowd numbered over 200 smiling faces

Come join our Lions on Monday nights at the Town Hall

Henry Bauers and Don Fields – the Backbone of Bingo

We had a good night on Monday July 1 st with 226 players coming to play. The Lioness had a great selection of food with homemade pies being a hit and selling out. Total prize money of $1002 being given out with a $250 jackpot final game. We made a $1,666 profit for the Lion's scholarships.

Thanks to all the Lion workers that helped make this a success. The following helped with setup and working the floor etc. Tim Casey (caller), Bill Draudt, Phil Rose. DuWayne Schumacher, Mike McKeon. Don Fields, Ron Berglund, Den Hill, Jim Westerfield, Brock Orwig and Henry Bauers. It takes several workers for a crowd of this size. Thanks to all of our help and players.

We will have bingo July 8 th then off the 15 th for the Art League exhibit in the Community Center. Then we will restart on July 22 nd and continue each Monday through and including August 19 th. Our club goal/budget is to make $6,000 for our scholarships and 100% of our bingo profits goes to our scholarship program. Come join us for some fun, good food and a good cause.

Thanks.....Henry

INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS

June 13th at Little Bohemia

The Manitowish Waters Lions participated in a swearing-in ceremony at our June monthly dinner meeting. All of these fine Lions will serve during 2019-2020. We thank them for their efforts.

President Casey awards Homer Sykes a 40 year Lion Certificate at our June meeting.
