PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Fellow Lions, I hope everyone had a memorable Thanksgiving. Sheila & I spent ours with our grandchildren in Park City, Utah & had a wonderful time. Christmas is now rushing toward us & will be here before we know it. Christmas is the season of giving, so if you know of someone in need, please see if you can help them out or contact someone who can help. "Where there's a need, there's a Lion."

Despite COVID-19, our club is still active. Your Board of Directors continues with monthly meetings and we continue to hold monthly dinner meetings. So, if you're feeling a bit housebound, I hope you will consider attending a dinner meeting. The food is always great and the camaraderie is unbeatable.

Dick Henske is collecting deer hides for our Lions Club, so let your deer hunting friends know we need deer hides.

I wish you all good health, stay safe and have a blessed Christmas and Happy New Year.

Lion Dick (Daniel Boone) Henske reminds all Lion Brothers that deer hides help the cause of our State Lions fund raising efforts. Deer hides are collected and sold by the Lions to companies that make gloves and apparel and that money helps our Lions with state projects.

Any lucky hunters can drop off their hides at Little Star Garage or Dan's Sport Shop and Dick will take them to a central drop off point.

December Dinner Lions Meeting at Little Bo

Lion Dan Meier has announced that the December Dinner Meeting will be held at Little Bohemia on December 17th.

The Activity will start with a social at 5:30 and dinner will follow at 6:30.

Lion Dan states that there will be hams and door prizes in his raffle.

All Lion Brothers who wish to attend must RSVP to Lion Lynn Schroeder (920-621-7366) by 12-11-20. This is very important.

The dinner choices are as follows:

Prime Rib
Champagne Chicken

The cost of either dinner will be $25, including tax and tip.
