PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Tim Casey

Hello again Manitowish Waters Lions. July is upon us and I hope you had the opportunity to enjoy some of the wonderful Fourth of July activities that took place this past weekend. It is truly amazing how many things we can do around this time of year in our small northwoods community and how many of those things involve Manitowish Waters Lions.

Over the weekend I attended the dedication of the Don Barnabo bar area in our Lions Pavilion and was moved by how many of Don's family attended. Lion Mike Hahn gave a particularly stirring tribute to the memory of Don and the friendship they shared over the years. I hope each of you will stop by for a pork chop dinner and stop by the bar to see the beautiful plaque erected in Don's memory.

Our fund raising activities have seen a marked increase in participation. A record number of vendors were at our last Flea Market and Chef Ronaldo pumped out over 80 "World Famous Cheeseburgers" last Thursday while Monday's Bingo event attracted a capacity crowd and raised over $1,000.00 for our Scholarship Fund. We still need some assistance at Bingo, both in the kitchen and on the floor, to better serve our customers, and remember, July 19th is Bingo & Movie Night in the Park at Kohler Park, a new initiative, and we need more volunteers to make that effort a success. Contact Lion Mike McKeon to volunteer.

Have an enjoyable summer and try to make it memorable and meaningful by spending a few minutes or hours participating in the various activities our club conducts. “We Serve”, and we make a difference.

On July 3, 2021 The Lions Pavilion Bar was named Barney's Bar after long time Lion-in-Charge Don Barnabo. Above is a picture of friends and relatives at the dedication. (photos by Den Hill) provided. Come join this unique event on July 19th at Koller Park!

Enjoy your Monday nights by attending Lions Bingo. Every Monday our Lions offer Bingo at the Town Hall. Doors open at 6 pm and the first call is 7 pm.

PLEASE NOTE: on July 19th Outdoor Bingo will be held at Koller Park – food and beverages will be available starting at 6 pm (hot dogs – hamburgers- popcorn, etc.) The first call will be at 7 pm. As an extra bonus for families, a child-friendly movie will be

THURSDAY MARKET

The Lions Flea-Farm-Craft Market is in high gear. 42 Vendor spots have been used giving everyone in search of antiques, carvings, slightly worn relics from the past and fresh produce provide many choices.

The Market is each Thursday from 9 am – 2pm at the Town Hall area. (file photo)

The famous Manitowish Waters Lions Pork Chop Dinners continue to dazzle the crowds with the fine food (chops, salad bar, baked potato, roll and butter) for the meager price of $14. Mark July 22 on your list of things to do. Serving at the Lions Pavilion is from 5pm – 7pm. At our June dinner 153 meals were served. Grill Master Dan Meier and Event Chairman John Hilbert invite you to share this wonderful event. See you on July 22! (Mike McKeon photo)
